
Vicki L. Robinson

Senior Counselor for Policy
Office of Inspector General
Department of Health and Human Services

Vicki L. Robinson is Senior Counselor for Policy at the Office of Inspector General (OIG) of the United States Department of Health and Human Services, where she advises the Inspector General on legal and policy issues related to integrity and oversight of health care programs and transformations in payment and delivery of health care. She previously served as the OIG's Senior Advisor for Health Care Reform and as Chief of the Industry Guidance Branch (IGB) in the Office of Counsel to the Inspector General (OCIG). As IGB Chief, Ms. Robinson was responsible for reviewing business arrangements for compliance with the fraud and abuse laws, preparing advisory opinions, drafting safe harbor regulations, and providing guidance to industry and government stakeholders on the anti-kickback statute, safe harbor regulations, and other fraud and abuse authorities, including the Stark law. Prior to joining OIG, Ms. Robinson was in private practice in Washington, D.C. Ms. Robinson is a graduate of Harvard Law School and Stanford University. She currently serves on the Board of Directors of the American Health Lawyers Association. She also served on the Governing Council of the Health Law Section of the American Bar Association. Ms. Robinson is a frequent speaker on health care fraud and abuse topics.

(Updated December 2016)

